«Regulation»: means Regulation No.231/2013 of the Council of 19 December 2012 supplementing Directive 2011/61/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to exemptions, general operating conditions, depositaries, leverage, transparency and supervision.

«Non temporary breach of the threshold»: means the case where the total value of assets under management have exceeded the threshold of section 4(2) of the Law, and this breach is likely to continue for a period of more than three months.

«Register»: means the register created and maintained by the Securities and Exchange Commission for the registration of AIFMs subject to registration pursuant to section 4(3) of the Law.

«Law»: means the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Law of 2013.

«Circular»: means this Circular.

«Temporary breach»: means the breach of the threshold of section 4(2) of the Law which does not fall within the meaning of non temporary breach of the threshold.

Terms used in this Circular and are not defined otherwise; have the meaning ascribed to them by the Law.

2. Registration as AIFM below the threshold

- (1) For the registration of an AIFM who does not exceed the threshold of section 4(2) of the Law in the Register kept by the Securities and Exchange Commission, a Form according to the example attached as Annex (Form F56/2013/01) is submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the AIF manager or the self-managed AIF, accordingly. The Form is accompanied by all the documents and information set in the abovementioned Annex. The Form, as well as the documents, is submitted in an official language of the Republic or in English.
- (2) The persons signing the Form, decide to empower, a specific person or persons in order to represent them at the Securities and Exchange Commission in every promotional action undertaken for the Form and to communicate with the Commission during the Form's evaluation.
- (3) The documents and information attached to the Form, will be originals, or, where this is impossible, true copies of the originals. The true copy must be certified as such by a person independent from the AIF manager or the self managed AIF, accordingly. In case these documents and information have been drafted in a language other than an official language of the Republic or English, official translations are submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- (4) In case the information of points (1) and (3) is modified, the AIF manager or the self managed AIF, accordingly, notifies the new information to the Securities and Exchange Commission immediately.

3. Requirements for the registration to the Register:

- (1) In order to register an AIF manager or a self managed AIF in the Register, the Securities and Exchange Commission examines whether the assets under management of the AIFs, do not exceed the threshold of section 4(2) of the Law. The calculation of the total value of assets under management is conducted according to the provisions of the Regulation.
- (2) Provided that the total value of assets under management does not exceed the threshold of section 4(2) of the Law, the Securities and Exchange Commission registers the AIF manager or the self managed AIF in the Register.

- (3) In case the Securities and Exchange Commission ascertains that the requirements for the registration of an AIF manager or a self managed AIF, accordingly, in the Register are not met, the AIF manager or the self managed AIF, accordingly, is notified. In such a case, the AIF manager or the self managed AIF, accordingly, is obliged to apply, within thirty (30) calendar days, for an AIFM license according to section 7 of the Law, provided the requirements for its application apply.

4. Provision of additional information and elements:

During the evaluation of the Form and the information of chapter 2 of this Circular, the Securities and Exchange Commission may request, on a case by case basis, from the AIF manager or the self managed AIF, clarifications and additional information, which according to the Securities and Exchange Commission's opinion are necessary of the complete evaluation of the Form.

5. Carrying out of inspections by the Securities and Exchange Commission:

During the evaluation of the Form, the Securities and Exchange Commission may carry out inspections and investigations, as well to cooperate with other government authorities of the Republic and competent authorities or organizations abroad, as set in the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission Law of 2009, as applicable.

6. Continuous obligations of AIFM under the threshold:

- (1) AIFMs under the threshold apply procedures which allow them to calculate on a continuous basis the threshold of the total value of assets under management according to the Regulation.
- (2) The AIF manager or the self managed AIF provide the Securities and Exchange Commission on at least an annual basis, up to date information according to paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Annex – Form F56/2013/01.

7. Breach of the threshold:

- (1) The AIF manager or the self managed AIF notifies immediately the Securities and Exchange Commission in case the total value of assets under management exceeds the threshold of section 4(2) of the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Law of 2013 at any time, irrespective of whether this breach of the threshold is temporary or non temporary.

- (2) When the AIF manager or the self managed AIF decides that this is a temporary breach of the threshold, it notifies the Securities and Exchange Commission without delay stating that this is such a breach. The notification includes information which supports this evaluation of the AIF manager or the self managed AIF on the temporary nature of the breach, including a description of the situation and an explanation of the reasons why it is considered a temporary breach of the threshold.
- (3) Three months following the date on which the total value of assets under management exceeded the relevant threshold, the AIF manager or the self managed AIF calculates again the total value of assets under management and
 - (a) either submits to the Securities and Exchange Commission information which proves that this value is less than the relevant threshold and that the circumstances that led to the breach of the threshold of the total value of assets under management are no longer applicable,
 - (b) or requests immediately an AIFM license according to section 7 of the Law.
- (4) When the AIF manager or the self managed AIF decides that this is a non temporary breach of the threshold, it notifies the Securities and Exchange Commission, without delay, stating that this case is considered a non temporary breach and requests an AIFM license within thirty (3) calendar days according to sections 4(5) and 7 of the Law.
