

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (“the CySEC”) would like to inform the investors that on the 18th of June 2018 the District Court of Nicosia has issued a ruling, which can be found here, in relation to the application filed by the applicants Adalene Ltd etc. for the issuance of an Interim Order Norwich Pharmacal type against CySEC. The said Interim Order was related to the disclosure of information and/or documents exchanged between CySEC and the Securities and Exchange Commission of a third country, which the court declined to grant.

CySEC announces, also, that in its website under the section ‘Public Information’, a new category has been added, named ‘Court Decisions’ that can be found here, where court decisions related to CySEC will be published for informative purposes.

Nicosia, 20 June 2018.
