

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission ('CySEC') would like to inform the public that the Administrative Court, within trialing the Case No. 1044/2014, Constantinos Mylonas v. Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission, for the imposition to Mr. Mylonas ('the Applicant') of a total administrative fine of €90.000 (See Announcement dated 5.6.2014), has issued a decision on the 22nd August 2018 on an Interim Application submitted by the Applicant.

The Interim Application was for a Court Order/Direction to permit the Applicant to review CySEC's files relating to the amendment of The Transparency Requirements (Securities Admitted to Trading on a Regulated Market) Law of 2007 (L.190(I)/2007) pursuant to the Amending L. 35(I)/2016 and Directive 2013/50/EC and to take relevant copies. CySEC opposed to the Applicant's Interim Application.

The Administrative Court, according to the decision on 22nd August 2018, dismissed the Interim Application and did not issue any Order/Direction. Full details of the Court's decision can be found here.

Trial of the Case No. 1044/2014 is to be continued.

Nicosia, 6th September 2018

Em/